Sameer Kulkarni Takes Helm as Managing Director at Itema Weaving India

Itema Weaving (India) Pvt. Ltd. has announced the appointment of Sameer Kulkarni as Managing Director, leveraging his extensive 28-year tenure in the textile industry. Known for his strategic insight and leadership, Kulkarni has been a pivotal part of Itema India since 2012, driving the company's growth and adaptation to the evolving market.

Kulkarni's vision for his new role is clear: embrace challenges with a united team effort, focusing on quality and objectives to enhance Itema's reputation in India's strategic market. Under his guidance, Itema aims to strengthen its market presence with innovative weaving solutions and superior after-sales service, despite the tough market dynamics.

With ambitious plans to enhance after-sales services, boost brand equity, and exceed sales targets, Kulkarni's leadership is poised to navigate Itema India through the complexities of the weaving industry. His appointment marks a commitment to innovation, excellence, and customer focus, aiming to propel Itema Weaving India to new heights in the competitive landscape
