Style to beat this summer with bold prints & bright colors

Sunny summer has arrived and everyone trying to track what essential care should be taken to beat the heat of summer, but when it comes to clothing we just buy a trendy outfit without thinking twice before buying clothes to see whether we are picking the right trend with comfort. This summer calls for a collection from the house of vintage, prints, bright colors, and much more. Lately, the fashion scenario has upgraded to some bold, big, and amplified abstract patterns on the runways. One must definitely add some classy trends to their summer wardrobe.

Geometric Print: Bold geometric patterns are big this summer different types of shapes and colors miss matching is funky. All this gives ones wardrobe a refresh and unique fashion makeover. They look great as a top, a skirt or a pair of shorts.

Source from Rimi Nayak by Liva

Floral Print: Floral prints are always in range for all seasons especially in summers. It is a staple print every wardrobe must have floral prints with a flowy range, whether it a maxi gown or a normal t-shirt floral prints is always classy and up to the mark for casuals to smart casuals.

- Ikat: There's something undeniably attractive about ikat. It is a dyeing technique used to create distinctive styles of textile patterns. Ikat is made by dyeing some threads before weaving the fabric. One should always have an ikat design outfit their wardrobe as it favors all time of the day.
  Image Source from Ogaan Market

Chevron: Chevron, in all of its zig-zagging glory, is a must-try design this summer. Chevron graphics have become especially popular amongst every fashion type shopper. What goes well is the demand drift towards vibrant prints that can suit both beach and more casual dressy looks.