

5 tips to upgrade your wardrobe with smart, chic & bold office wear

Everyone loves an upgrade be it lifestyle-wise or in a daily routine. How can one upgrade their wardrobe to get that classy look? Many still assume that work wear has to be plain or boring, but it is time to turn over the pages to put down the chic, bold, and smart look out there! Office wear should be comfortable for a long day with fashion in trend to keep ourselves upgraded as it is a season of sunshine outside with 80-degree temperature with breathable outfits is what everyone craves.

- Trouser pants: Trousers are always the best option when it comes to formals but as a trend beige color is in high demand in this hot sun light color with breathable fabric and a loose fit is what everyone craves. The look can be styled with Shirt, tank tops with a pair of shoes which gives it a striking look.

- Classy Saree: The light weight saree with a breathable fabric that gives a vintage look. A bright color saree with a floral print, geometric, or a trendy abstracts also avoid a garish colors for some celebrations we can go with a fab sarees to wear in office with a backless sleeveless blouse is perfect.

Source from Navyasa by Liva

- Kurti with Cigarette Pants: Cotton outfits are always a best choice in summers for a long day with a fine combination and well-fitted cigarette pants. This look forms a perfect Indo-western formal look. Like trousers, you can keep at least one pair of black and beige trousers in your wardrobe. It pairs well with almost any color Kurtis. For work wear, opt for a subtle color and minimal work Kurtis this style of Kurtis is keen in summers.

- Cor-od sets: Co-ord sets made a trendy office outfit option. One should always have cor-od set in there wardrobe and go for a lovely plain cotton or linen co-ord set for weekdays with a fancy prints, then reserve the same for your Friday or weekend dressing. Accentuate a plain co-ord set with a lovely neckpiece, statement earrings, dazzling heels or a printed scarf , whether the set is printed with design or a plain with or without jacket is always up to mark .

Source from Rimi Nayak by Liva

- Tunic & Denim: Short tops or tunics add a bohemian and casual look that is perfect for your office weekend wear. They are available in various prints, patterns, and colors. A line, straight-cut, oversized, and more; tunics make a chic and comfortable option. If you select tunics as your casual wear for the office, you can try a few bold colors and prints! The look with a cargo Trouser with an oversize striped blazer incorporates a basic patterned element into your outfit without making it look loud, with the perfect hand bag which make your look classy and stylish. Smart casuals with denims shirt and jackets are always classy high-waisted wide-leg jeans they're a darker denim and look great teamed with a silk shirt and a heel and could totally work