

CMAI's Diamond Jubilee: Saluting Six Decades of Dedication and Partnership

The luminous streets of Mumbai witnessed an electrifying yet poignant evening as the Clothing Manufacturers Association of India (CMAI) marked its diamond jubilee, celebrating 60 eventful years. This grand milestone was commemorated by honoring the linchpins and allies that have significantly influenced CMAI's remarkable journey.

Amid the dazzle of the celebration in Mumbai, CMAI conferred the esteemed CMAI ICON Award and the Loyal Partner Award on 14 influential industry figures, 12 devoted service partners and vendors, along with two cornerstone members of the CMAI Secretariat.

Established in 1963, CMAI's evolution over the past six decades has transformed it into a formidable entity within the Indian apparel sector. The present accolades it enjoys are not solely due to the immediate team but also the cumulative endeavors of past committee members and dedicated volunteers. The gala celebrated 14 such patrons whose silent contributions have been fundamental in steering CMAI's trajectory.

The evening further highlighted partners whose unwavering allegiance has been consistent with CMAI's ethos. Among them, some have fostered a bond with the CMAI for a commendable three decades. Their sustained backing has been integral to CMAI's advancement, an acknowledgment encapsulated with the Loyal Partner Award.

The spotlight of the festivity also brightly illuminated two stalwarts from the CMAI Secretariat - Mr. Mohan Sadhwani, the Executive Director, and Mr. B.S. Chandrasekhar, the Secretary. Their undeterred commitment spanning over 25 years has been central in steering CMAI's day-to-day endeavors, significantly contributing to its esteemed stature.

As CMAI stands at the cusp of an even brighter future, it reverently acknowledged the visionaries who laid its foundational bricks. Their unwavering contributions are the building blocks of the Association's legacy.

CMAI's 60th-anniversary gala was not just a retrospective glance but an optimistic gaze into the future. It reaffirmed that the voyage of the association is an ongoing saga. With its foundation rooted in excellence, collaboration, and innovation, and ably supported by its dedicated members and partners, CMAI is set to redefine benchmarks in the Indian apparel milieu, etching an indomitable legacy.
