

Empowering Global Trade: Ministry of Commerce Endorses ITM 2024 and HIGHTEX 2024 Exhibitions

Republic of Turkey Ministry of Commerce has unveiled its "2024 Trade Delegation Supports List," showcasing its commitment to fostering international trade partnerships. Notably, the esteemed ITM 2024 International Textile Machinery Exhibition and HIGHTEX 2024 International Technical Textiles and Nonwoven Exhibition have secured their positions on this prestigious roster.

Scheduled to take place from June 4th to 8th, 2024, at the renowned Tüyap Fair and Congress Center in Istanbul, the ITM 2024 Exhibition, organized in collaboration with Tüyap Tüm Fuarçılık Yapım A.Ş. and Teknik Fairs Inc., and in cooperation with the Textile Machinery and Accessories Industrialists Association (TEMSAD), promises to be an unparalleled gathering of textile technology pioneers. This five-day event will attract global investors and industry professionals eager to explore the latest advancements in textile technology.

Spanning an impressive 120,000 square meters across 13 halls, the ITM 2024 Exhibition and HIGHTEX 2024 International Technical Textiles and Nonwovens Exhibition have earned recognition on the Ministry of Trade's esteemed support list. This endorsement underscores their pivotal role in driving international commerce and innovation within the textile sector.

In line with this endorsement, both exhibitions are poised to welcome trade delegations from a diverse array of countries, including Bangladesh, Algeria, Indonesia, and beyond. These delegations will have unparalleled opportunities to engage with textile industry leaders and explore the entire spectrum of textile manufacturing, from weaving and knitting to dyeing and printing.

To facilitate seamless participation, companies interested in joining these trade delegations can seek assistance from Turkish Consulates and Commercial Attaché Offices in their respective countries. These offices stand ready to support visa applications and ensure a smooth and productive experience for all attendees.
