Union Minister of Textiles Shri Giriraj Singh visits Bharat Tex 2025 at the Bharat Mandapam

Bharat Tex 2025 at the Bharat Mandapam, New Delhi features a comprehensive showcase of India's textile ecosystem, covering everything from raw materials and fibers to finished products, technical textiles, home furnishings, and high-end fashion

Bharat Tex 2025 has attracted participation from global textile giants, brands, and industry bodies

The Union Minister of Textiles, Shri Giriraj Singh, visited Bharat Tex 2025 on its opening day today at Bharat Mandapam, New Delhi. Organized by the consortium of 12 Textile Export Promotion Councils and supported by the Ministry of Textiles, this main event is being held from February 14-17, 2025 at the Bharat Mandapam, New Delhi, and will cover the entire value chain of textiles, from raw materials and fibers to finished products, technical textiles, home furnishings, and high-end fashion. Related exhibitions such as accessories, garment machinery, dyes and chemicals and handicrafts, are being held from February 12 to 15 at the India Expo Centre and Mart Greater Noida.

Bharat Tex 2025 is one of the world's largest textile expos, bringing together policymakers, industry leaders, global brands, and stakeholders from across the textile value chain under one roof. With over 5,000 exhibitors and participation from more than 120 countries, Bharat Tex 2025 has drawn significant global interest, reflecting India's growing influence in textile trade.

This year's event is built around the twin themes of resilient global value chains and textile sustainability. This mega textile event offers a range of activities, covering a global sized trade fair and expo, a global scale textiles conference, seminars, CEO roundtables, and B2B and G2G meetings. It will also feature strategic investment discussions, product launches, and collaborations poised to reshape the global textile industry. Dedicated buyer-seller meets, policy roundtables and networking sessions will enhance international business collaborations, reinforcing India's position as a preferred global sourcing destination.

With participation from leading textile manufacturers, global retail giants, and industry associations, Bharat Tex 2025 is set to facilitate high-value trade discussions and partnerships. The event will host over 70 conference sessions, featuring top international speakers, industry veterans, and policymakers discussing key topics such as global trade shifts, technical textiles, AI-driven manufacturing, and the future of sustainable fashion.

Fusion of India's historical textile expertise with contemporary trends will be a highlight of the event. Fashion shows, trend forecasts, and product launches will provide a glimpse into the future of textiles, while traditional displays and cultural performances will celebrate the enduring legacy of Indian craftsmanship. This year's event also enforces India's 5F vision – Farm to Fibre, Fabric, Fashion, and Foreign Markets, positioning the country as a reliable and sustainable sourcing destination for global textile companies.

Bharat Tex 2025 promises to be a celebration of the textile industry's past, present, and future. It aims to be a key influencer in shaping global textile trends, driving innovation, and promoting sustainability. As the industry looks towards more integrated and sustainable practices, Bharat Tex 2025 will undoubtedly play a pivotal role in this transformative journey.
