The Clothing Manufacturers Association of India (CMAI) has announced an overwhelming response to the 84th National Garment Fair (NGF), scheduled for February 2027. The strong exhibitor participation reinforces the fair’s position as an important business, sourcing and networking platform for India’s apparel industry.

The upcoming edition will bring together 920 exhibitors, 1,010 brands and 1,050 stalls across approximately 41,000 square metres at the Bombay Exhibition Centre, Mumbai. The fair will showcase Spring/Summer 2027 collections, connecting manufacturers and brands with retailers and buyers ahead of the new season.

A Key Meeting Point for India’s Apparel Industry

Strong participation across product categories reflects the fair’s relevance to manufacturers, brands and retailers.

The fair will be held at the Bombay Exhibition Centre, Mumbai, across two date windows.

The Men’s, Kids’ and Accessories segments will take place from February 1–3, 2027, followed by the Women’s segment from February 8–10, 2027. Category-wise participation includes 382 exhibitors in Kids’ Wear, 280 in Women’s Wear, 244 in Men’s Wear and 13 in Accessories, reflecting the breadth of product offerings.

CMAI President Santosh Katariya highlighted growth opportunities in India’s domestic apparel market, supported by organised retail expansion and rising consumer aspirations. He noted that businesses are adapting to cost pressures and changing consumption patterns through product innovation, sharper merchandising and a stronger focus on market needs.

Rohit Munjal, Vice President, CMAI and Chairman of the Fair Sub-Committee, said the strong stall bookings demonstrate the value the event delivers to the apparel trade. The fair will help participating brands strengthen retailer relationships and present their latest collections.

With extensive brand participation and dedicated product segments, the 84th NGF is expected to facilitate business engagement and help retailers discover collections for Spring/Summer 2027.
